Dear Andrew

1. Aptos Corporation Pty Ltd
International Patent Application No. PCT/AU99/00891
“A parking management system”

On 31 May 2001 I sent by Registered Post (Number RL14637594) to you at 123 Settlement Road, The Gap, Queensland, 4061 some documents in respect of the above patent application, requesting your signature to three of the documents. The letter was returned to me marked ‘Unclaimed’, the returned letter being received by me on 2 July 2001.

2. Notice of General Meeting and Notice of Annual General Meeting of the members of Aptos Corporation Pty Ltd

On 11 July 2001 I sent by Registered Post (Number RL23106820) to you at 123 Settlement Road, The Gap, Queensland, 4061 notices of the above meetings, together with the accompanying documents. The letter was returned to me marked ‘Unclaimed’, the returned letter being received by me on 31 July 2001.

3. Specifications of Patent Application - United States of America and Canada

I now have the above two documents to send to you together with some forms to be signed. Would you please advise me as a matter of urgency whether you are still at the address at 123 Settlement Road, Queensland 4061 or, if not, of your new address, so that I can send you the material. If I do not receive a reply by Tuesday 7 August 2001, we shall continue to send company mail to that address, being, your last known address, until advised by you otherwise.

Yours sincerely

Michael Craig

Dear Michael

I have received your fax of August 3 today after returning to Brisbane last night. As you are aware from my email of December 23, 2000, sent at 7:11 pm EST I was not due to be in Brisbane for some time. I leave in a day or so again for several months.

I believe I have requested in writing last year that all correspondence relating to Aptos be sent to my solicitor Morgan Conley.

I am not aware of any written variation to this request, please forward my future correspondence to Morgan Conley.

Sending correspondence to me by Registered Mail when the last correspondence from me indicated I would be away and therefore unable to sign for the letter in my view seems to be a means for Aptos Corporation Pty Ltd to deprive me of correspondence.

Your fax has been forwarded to Morgan Conley for review/reply.

Sincerely,

Andrew Gockel

Michael,

I received your letter today dated 20 Dec on my return to Brisbane today.

I have been offshore for some time and was unable to attend The Gap post office in person to sign for your fax of Dec 1.

I will pass on your letter/fax to my solicitor in the new year for a reply.

I will be offshore again in the new year with an open return date.
